

There is a time in every man's education when he arrives at the conviction that envy is ignorance; that imitation is suicide; that he must take himself for better, for worse, as his portion; that, though the wide universe is full of good, no kernel of nourishing corn can come to him but through his toil bestowed on that plot of ground which is given to him to till . . . We but half express ourselves, and are ashamed of that divine idea which each of us represents . . . but God will not have his work made manifest by cowards . . . Trust thyself; every heart vibrates to that iron string. Accept the place the divine providence has found for you, the society of your contemporaries, . . . Great men have always done so, and confided themselves childlike to the genius of their age . . . perceiving that the absolutely trustworthy was seated at their heart working through their hands, predominating all their being. And we are now men, and must accept in the highest mind the same transcendent destiny; and not minors and invalids in a protected corner, not cowards fleeing before a revolution, but guides, redeemers, and benefactors, obeying the Almighty effort, and advancing on Chaos and the Dark.

Foreword

We are a whole made up of individual parts. Together we have cried for independence. With each other we have searched for self-reliance and have found the need for interdependence. Working together we have contributed to our class and have discovered our talents as individuals. Our growth as individuals has strengthened, not weakened our class. To Eastridge we leave the 1967 Pageant as a record of our awareness of our interdependence and our attainment of self-reliance.

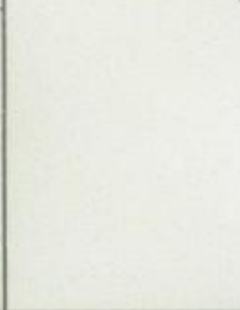

Dedication

Only if we respect the rights of others can we ourselves be worthy of respect. This is the conduct he has expected of us and the code he has inspired us to live by. He has earned our respect as a man, a teacher and an administrator; aiding us in our quest of self-reliance by making us realize our interdependence. In recognition of his services to Eastridge and his dedication to serving young Americans, we dedicate this PAGEANT to our friend, Mr. Alfred D. Kilmer.

The Class History: 1963-1967

When the class of '67 entered Eastridge in September, 1963, we brought with us assorted talents which we hoped would be further developed through both individual and group efforts during the next four years.

Our first great effort was in response to the demands made on us by the split-sessions. We were also involved in more important endeavors. Sue Bishop, Mary Cowden, and Dean Pratt contributed their musical and writing abilities with others to compose the Alma Mater. Several freshmen traveled with the Wind Ensemble to Needham, Massachusetts in the annual band exchange. Among them were Richard Green, Frank Tulley, David McVay, and Paula Hanley.

Football was the sport that enabled us to display our spirit. Although the Tomahawk went to I.H.S., our enthusiastic school spirit won us the War Bonnet in the annual Blue and White Weekend. In other sports outstanding frosh were, Randy Magin, who swam in the All-County Varsity relay; and Steve Coleman, who was starting his four years of Varsity Cross Country. Again we proved our school spirit as we cheered our "Cinderella" Basketball team to the Section V AA Championship! Other remembrances of '63-'64 include our exchange student Ernestina Medina Reuda ("Tita") from Chile.

In the fall of 1964 we organized under the leadership of our female government: Nancy Harris, President; Nancy Nowak, Vice-President; Jane Rivaldo, Secretary; and Joyce Tantillo, Treasurer. Our advisors were Mr. Dauvergne and Mr. Kingston. The Christmas dance, Frost Fantasy, was the greatest united effort of the year.

Student association secretary, Paula Siconalfi, was pert and poised as Irondequoit Harvest Queen. Cindy Lacy sparkled as Sophia in Tom Jones. Other sophomores in the production who revealed their incomparable abilities were Merit Wilkenson, Nancy Nowak, and Nancy Harris. For some Sophomore Choir members the high note of the year was the trip to Washington D.C. with Mr. Beck and the Senior Choir. Randy and Steve again exhibited their athletic prowess as did Chris Scalzo in Varsity Wrestling.

We came back from summer vacation to find that just as we had changed, so had the school. The "A" wing had been added which included a library, gymnasium, planetarium, and freshman classrooms. Class officers Merit Wilkenson, President; Paula Siconalfi, Vice-President; Elaine Stiner, Secretary; and Rick Stein, Treasurer; were elected. Nancy Harris and Nancy Nowak helped govern Student Association as Vice-President and Secretary, respectively.

In November, juniors Sue Bishop, Barbara Brockman, Barbara Campanella, Mary Cowden, David Feder, Don Harrington, Steve Kasiske, Steve Roberts, and Merit Wilkenson were inducted into the NHS. Sue Bishop, Mary Cowden and Steve Kasiske were sent to the Syracuse Citizenship Conference. Carl Hatch's verbal finesse took him into the State Debating Championship Tournament. Debbie Miller played host to Eva Cromwell of Sweden; and representatives Barbara Campanella and Barry Lee went to the Empire State Mock Government. Sue Bishop played in the All-State Orchestra. Bob Crawford, Steve Roberts, Jerry Liacona, and Merit Wilkenson represented E.H.S. at the 1966 YMCA Youth in Industry Conference at Henderson Harbor; and George Palumbo was a delegate to R.A.U.N. Special academic recognition in the form of the Harvard Book Award went to Don Harrington. Such were the individual achievements of our class.

In the spring of 1966 the Senior Choir contributed its talents in the production of Kiss Me Kate, and the "Miss Rochester Pageant". At our Junior Prom we honored Queen Jean Cerasani and her alternate Cindy Lacy. Thus ended our Junior year at E.H.S.

Seniors! Finally! The class unified under the government of Bruce Mauk, Don Harrington, Jean Spadoni, and Mike Piccarella. A touch of humorous fraud in the form of elevator passes for non-existent elevators was gleefully perpetrated by the snickering seniors upon unwitting freshmen, and the school year 1966-67 began. Student Association was ably led by Nancy Harris, Steve Roberts, Jane Rivaldo and Steve York.

November was a busy month for us: the Marina Club presented "Disneyland", and featured such seniors as Debby Doehler, Debbie Miller, Jerri Costich, Diane Adkin, Irmeli Book, Bill McDill and Dave Brodie. The National Honor Society inducted 32 seniors: Chris Albergo, Cathy Bailey, Jackie Bills, Meg Bills, Jean Cerasani, Dan Clifton, Jerri Costich, Tom Crider, Karen Dunnett, Eric Feichtinger, Diane Foster, Mary Foxton, Walt Gaffield, Mike Gribbroek, Carl Hatch, Martin Heit, Sue Herman, Sharon Juno, Scott Justice, Bill Knauf, Cindy Lacy, Debbie Miller, George Palumbo, Sandy Piotter, Pat Pizzo, Craig Reeves, Lydia Rekkerth, Bob Rimmeli, Kerry Strand, Joyce Tantillo, Sharon Weissend, and Sue Wiley. Diane Amico was the highest seller in the Magazine Drive which added over $1400 to our class treasury. In Out of the Frying Pan, the school play, we saw seniors Joanne Sczpanski, Debbie Miller, Meg Bills, Jackie Bills, Merit Wilkenson, Fred Onufryk, and Nancy Harris.

Our fall and winter sports teams ended their seasons successfully. Many new records were set by the Swim and Varsity Wrestling teams. The Varsity Basketball team, under Coach Masino, with a record of 14-4 went on its way to the sectionals. In the pre-quarter finals game at the War Memorial, we opposed Geneva. E.H.S. was the victor in a close, double overtime game with a final score of 64-60. In the final minutes Captain Don Joss sank two foul shots: Bill McKee made the final basket to put the game out of Geneva's reach. In the quarter-final game the Lancers played with great spirit, but were unable to stop the East High Orientals.

Cindy Iannacione was a recipient of the Hallmark Award at the Sibley Art Exhibit. Sue Bishop was again a member of the All-State Band; and Steve Coleman, for a second year, was named to the All County Cross Country team. The Variety Show "That's Entertainment", with the choreography of Miss Judi Andreano, and under the direction of Mr. Alfred Castle, was a huge success. Among our fondest memories will remain our exchange students Immi Book and Silke Heyden. Seniors Bev Boden, Kathie Bridgewater, Linda Callari, Dan Clifton, Debby Doehler, Penny Nordberg, and Joyce Tantillo, along with the Junior members, worked on the '67 PAGEANT, under the guidance of Mr. Edwin Fleche and Mr. William Kling, throughout the year.

The 1966-67 school year ended with a rush of activities for us. The Senior Class play, the Awards assembly, the banquet and Senior Ball, and lastly but most important of all: the end and the beginning—Commencement!

Eastridge High School Exchange Student Program Assembly

Silke presents Dr. Odell her flag.

Immi presents her flag to Dr. Odell.

In the 1966-67 school year, Eastridge High School was fortunate to have three pretty girls as its exchange students.

From Finland came Irmeli Book; and from West Germany two students, Silke Heyden and Ruth Rach.

During her short stay, Ruth resided with the family of Jean Cerasani.

Silke Heyden

Silke, with her American mother Mrs. Weber and sister Heidi.

Silke Heyden, our exchange student from Harpstedt, West Germany, was born on October 16, 1949. During her stay at Eastridge she resided with Heidi Weber and her family.

Rotating English, Choir, American History, Latin III, Public Speaking, Problems of Democracy, and Gym kept her busy during school hours. Her spare time is devoted to painting and drawing, collecting folk music records, making tape recordings (such as self-made radio drama), and hiking with her dog "Bumble Bee".

Her likes include ice cream, marshmallows, poems by Longfellow, lemon pie, American food and especially Bumble Bee.

Cheese and pizza, raw roast beef, and corn on the "cob" (as she delightfully calls it) are among her dislikes.

Silke lists: being able to choose her subjects, the dress code, girls not being able to wear slacks to school, the whole pass-system, and the variety and number of extra-curricular activities as the things she will remember about Eastridge.

Immi with American family, Mrs. Costich and Jerri.

Our exchange student from Finland, Irmeli Book, better known as "Immi", was born in Tampere on June 22, 1949. While at Eastridge, Immi lived with the Costich family, and her American sister was Jerri Costich.

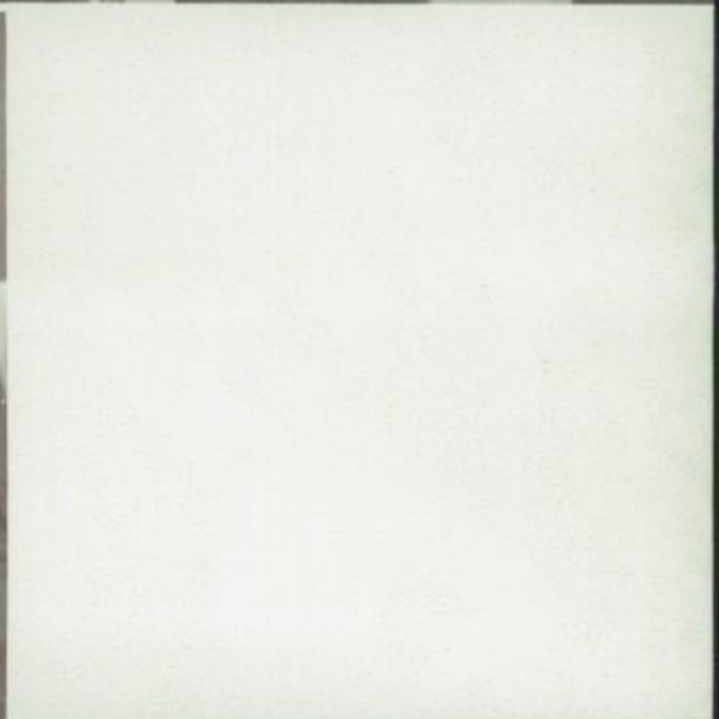

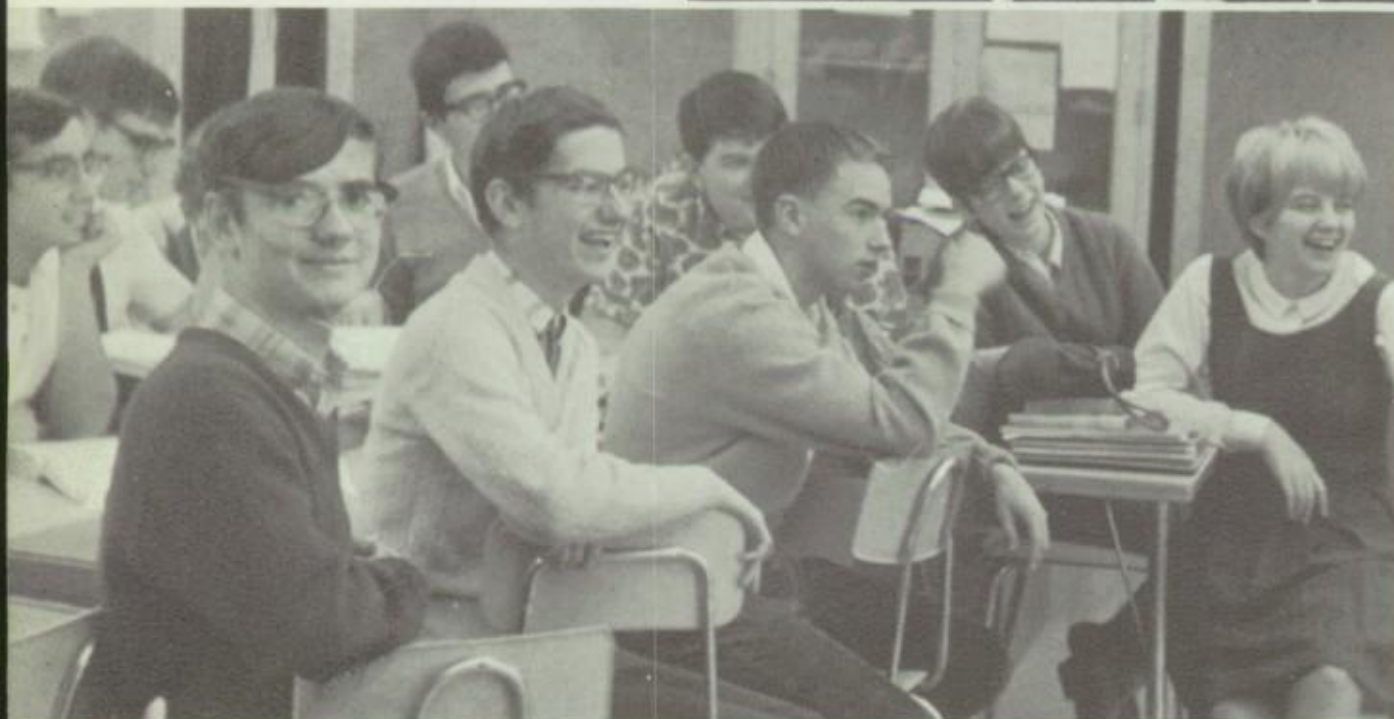

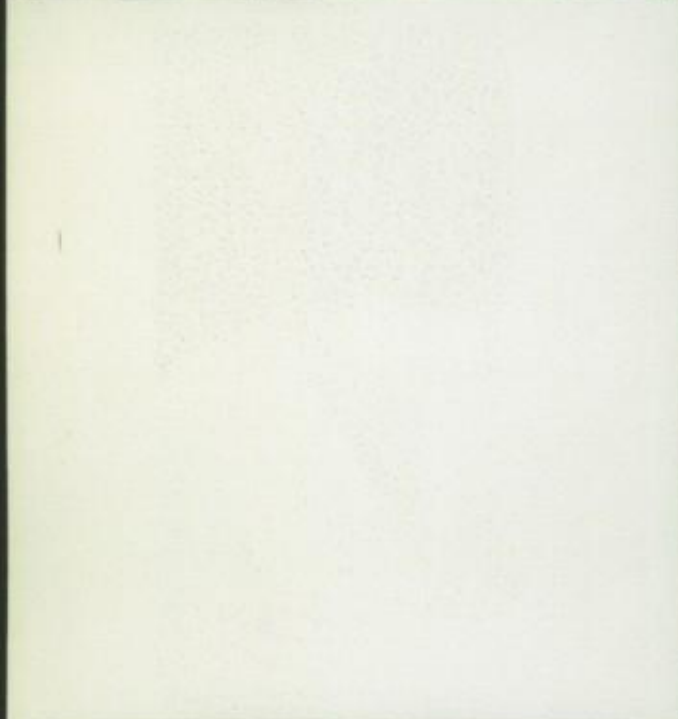

Immi's schedule this year included English 12, French III, German III, American history, public speaking, personal typing, crafts, and gym. However, she still found time to participate in GAA and the Water Show.

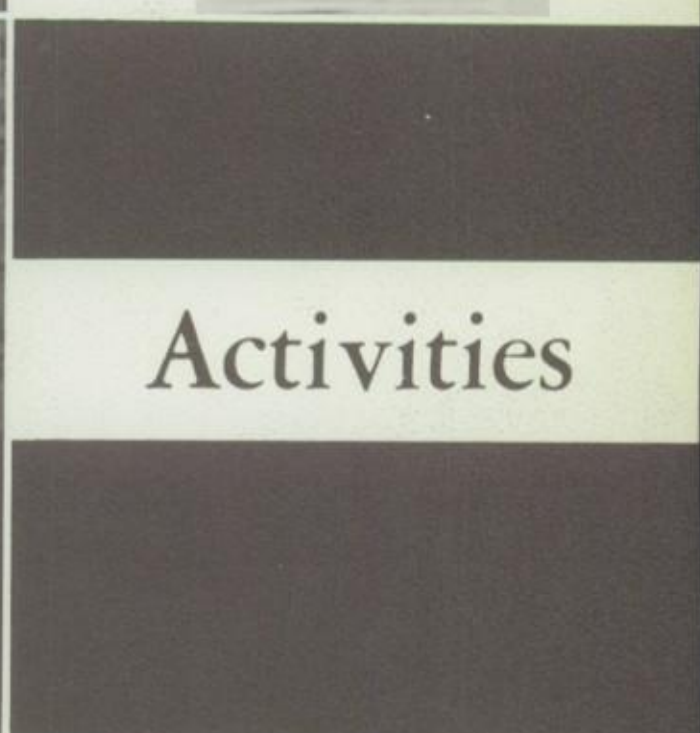

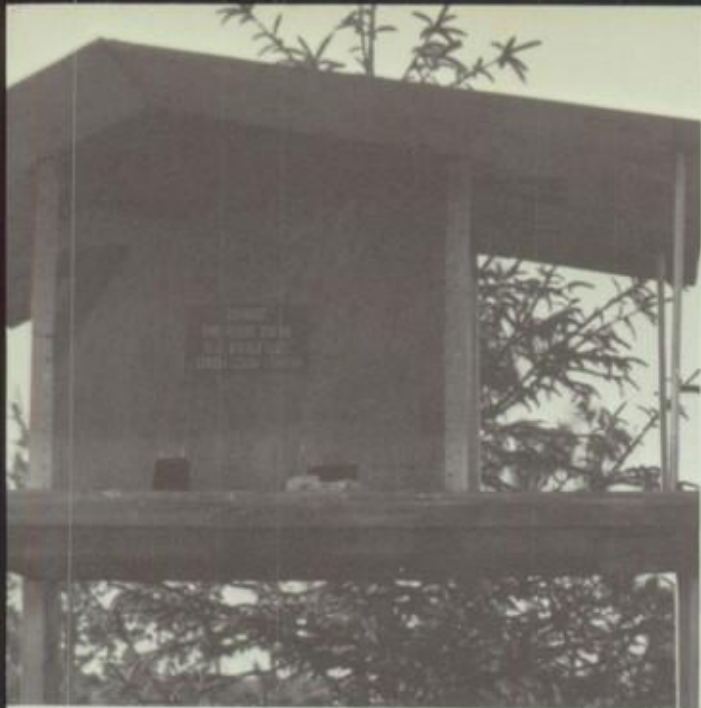

While out of school, Immi enjoys such sports as tennis, volleyball, swimming, and especially horseback riding. Immi has her own jumper named Imbra, and has won several national championships in riding. She also likes American food, especially chocolate cake and steak. In Immi's quieter moments she enjoys reading and playing the piano.

Some things she'll remember about Eastridge are football games, the Water Show, the flag assembly, and especially the friendly student body.

Student Life

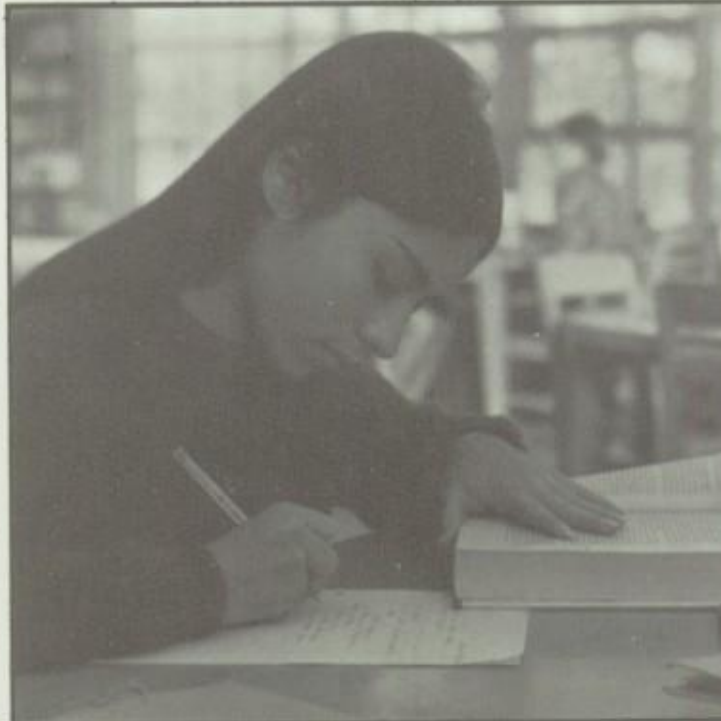

Sung the pain
Singing the wonder
the growing of awareness
the impatience of learning

sweeps me
rushes me
onto life

that gapping
gaping
abyss
of curiousness

-Sue Bishop-

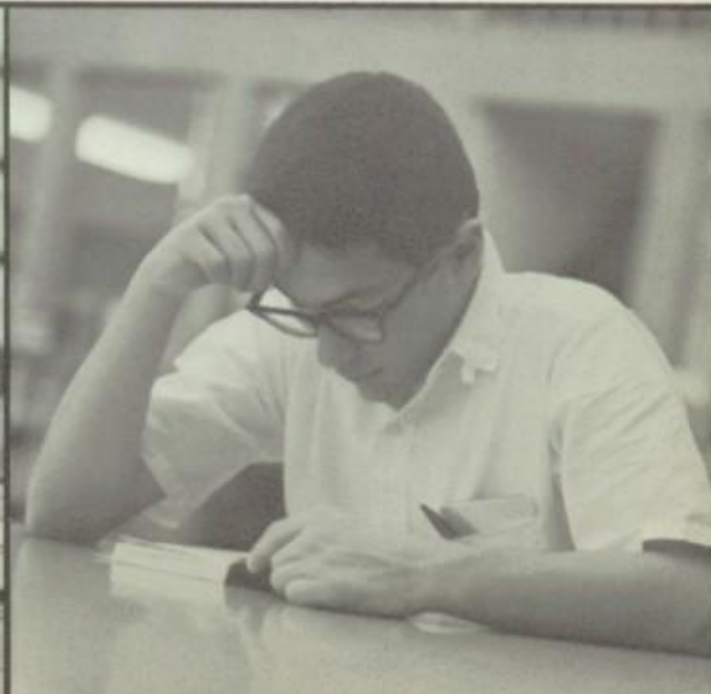

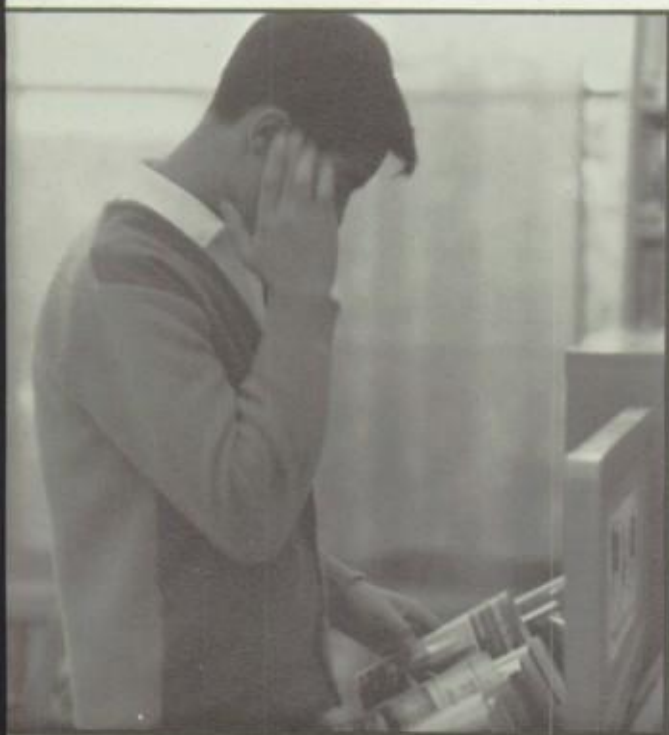

Succession to Truth

Little by little the child grew independent
he began to walk alone
his body grew stronger
he began to converse
but still he lived in a dream world
reality hadn't sunk in yet
the world was made for play
and dreams and make-believe
then playtime ended
facts were crammed into his head
he was tested and retested
more facts came but this time
he accepted them in a different light
he wanted them he wanted to learn
and to know he had a reason
he loved life and his thirst
for knowledge was unquenchable.

-Paula J. Cudzilo-

The Scene

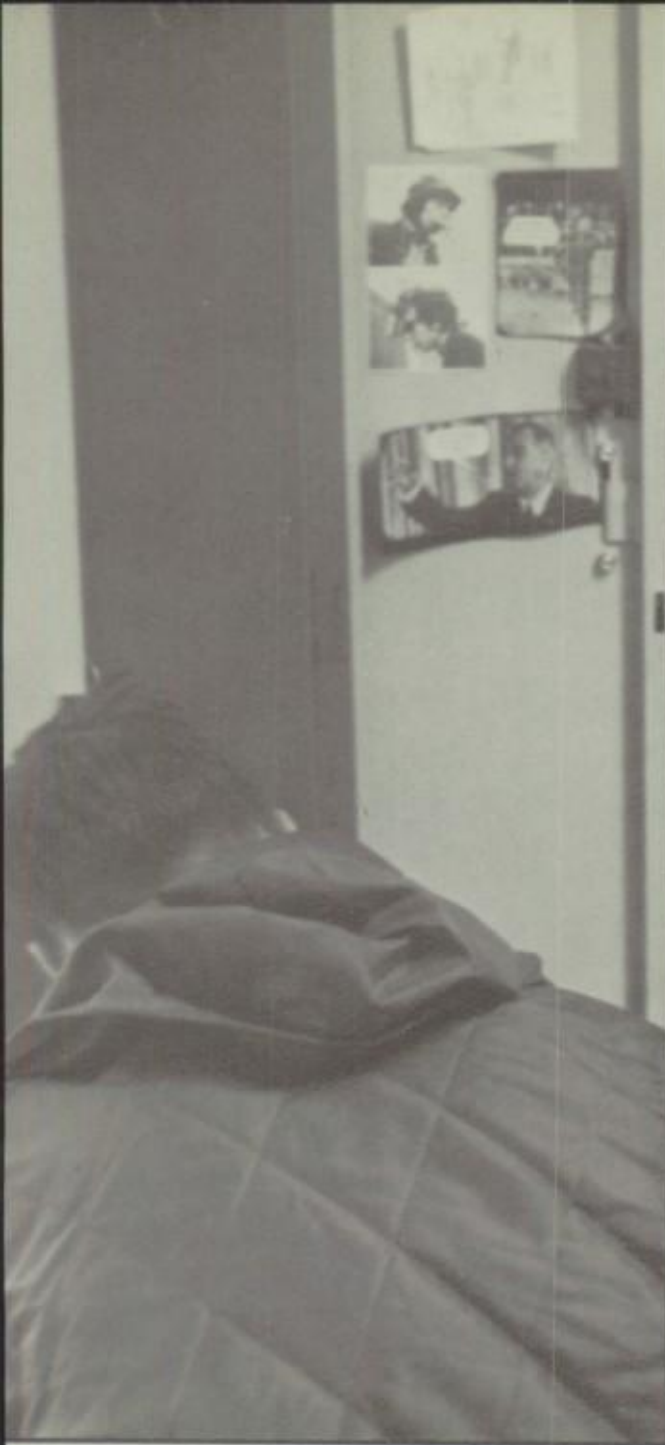

"Tuck in your shirt, push back your hair."
 "Not fair!" The freshmen cry.

"Remove the boots." More flowered suits?
 "If one's like mine, I'll die!"

The juniors laugh,
 The teachers laugh,
 The sophomores don't reply.
 The seniors look and maybe smile.
 "We've been through that," they sigh.

Dearest -
I look back on
my dearer year, I see
my dear face with a handsome,
but one face looks on it. I recall wonderful conversations about just about everything. So many and I think of it over. It's mind and heart enjoyed that memory. It's all memories - except the memory of the constant love makes the present. All my love,
from them

No man is an island entire of itself.
Every man is a piece of the continent,
a part of the main. If a clod be washed away by the sea Europe is the less,
as well as if a promontory were, as well as if a friend's manor, or if thine own were. Any man's death diminishes me, because I am involved

in mankind . . .
